Truman Claims Administration Sacrifices Defense for Budget

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Former President Truman scored the Republican administration Friday night for aggravating current international and national crises by allowing the United States to drift with events.

The elder statesman of the Democratic Party accused the present administration of a lack of "firm and foresighted leadership" in the handling of national defense and the civil rights problem at a Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner here.

The former president received a standing ovation before and after his address to a capacity crowd at the Biltmore Bowl.

"The administration is letting our defense system, on which the free world depends, go to pot—for a mess of pottage called a balanced budget," Truman charged.

On the domestic front, he criticized the kind of leadership which he said led to the calling out of troops to protect civil rights.

Charges Arrogance

The former president said "we actually are in the middle of an international crisis. The present administration's arrogance and self-righteousness have alienated our friends and weakened our alliances with other free nations."

Truman said that while the secretary of state "dances on the brink of war" the President has slowed military expenditures permitting the Russians to score their greatest propaganda victory in years through launching the first earth satellite.

He said it was "poor trading" for the administration, when it could not get a disarmament agreement with Russia, to cut down our armed forces unilaterally.

In outlining a five point set of principles which he said should guide the Democratic Party, the former president emphasized the principle of protecting civil rights. "I think that a firm and foresighted leadership might accomplish this without calling on the Army for help."

Sets Five Principles

The party principles he set forth were:

—The Democratic Party is, and must remain, the party of the people.

—The party must stand firmly and forthrightly for the full enjoyment and protection of civil rights—regardless of race, creed or national origin.

—The party must believe in, and work for a constant economic growth and rising standard of living.

—In foreign policy, the party must stand firmly for cooperation and concerted action with other free nations.

—The Democratic Party must support an adequate national defense, whatever the cost.

H. V. McDaniel To Close Store On Main Street

To Liquidate Stock; Will Continue His Tire Business

H. V. McDaniel today announced plans to liquidate and close Mac's Car and Home Supply on Main street, adding that his tire business at Poplar and Jackson will be continued with a greater emphasis on this operation.

He said that starting Monday liquidation of the stock will begin with a storewide sale, which will continue until the stock is completely disposed of.

He said he planned to have the store closed by the end of the year.

"Because of our increasing tire business and in order to make our tire business even bigger and better, with better service to all, we are closing the Car and Home department of our business—the part that is situated at 17 North Main street," Mr. McDaniel said.

"We will still be located at 3 South Jackson street, continuing as Goodyear retailer and distributor, handling Goodyear tires, tubes, batteries, recapping, seat covers, small auto accessories, bicycles and bicycle parts.

"Our budget department will be maintained and operated just as it has been in the past."

Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel opened the Car and Home supply at 17 South Main street in 1943, later taking the building immediately to the north and installing an appliance department there. Then they moved the tire business from a site on North Jackson into larger, completely remodeled quarters at Poplar and Jackson.

Congressman Calls for 'Fresh Look' On Gifts to Gov't Officials

WASHINGTON (UP)—Rep. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.) called today for a "fresh look" by Congress at gifts to government officials.

Keating, senior Republican on the House Judiciary Committee, proposed that it study "the entire gift question" to see if any new laws are needed or old ones need changing.

The New York congressman said in an interview that there is "apparently a lot of confusion" over what gifts can be accepted. He said Congress should provide some "guidelines" because in some borderline cases conscience is the only guide.

As chairman of an investigating subcommittee in 1953, Keating was sharply critical of gifts to some Truman administration officials. "Just exactly the same standards should apply to Republicans as to Democrats," he said.

"No gift should be accepted which could possibly influence ac-

Highway Police Now 'Troopers'

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—Illinois state highway "trooper" were patrolling the state's highways today.

State highway police patrolmen became "troopers" effective Friday.

State Public Safety Director Joseph D. Bibb reported the use of the term "trooper" to replace "patrolman" was an effort to "create more public acceptance of our overall enforcement program."

The word "troopers," he said, "conveys an image of qualified, well-trained enforcement personnel in the minds of the public."

Other members of the state police force will be referred to by their ranks, such as "sergeant," as they were before.

Gov. Stratton similarly asked public acceptance of the new "trooper" designation and said it in no way affects the official job classification as defined by law.

Mrs. Joe Maller Hurt In Auto-Truck Crash

Carol, wife of Joe Maller of Harrisburg Route 2, suffered head and knee injuries this morning in an auto-truck crash on Route 13 eight miles west of Harrisburg.

Mr. Maller said he was driving back of a truck driven by Sam Grubbs of Eldorado and that the truck stopped and skidded sideways when an auto pulled onto the highway in front of it, that his car collided with the truck.

Truck Overtakes, Loose Wheel Hits Elmer McDowell

A Midland Construction Co. truck overturned on Route 13 near the Pickford greenhouses west of Harrisburg about 2:15 p. m. Friday when its left rear wheel came off.

The driver, Leo Kincaid, Harrisburg, was not injured but the rolling wheel hit Elmer McDowell of Dorris Heights and then dented a parked truck belonging to Gus Brown of Eldorado.

Kincaid was driving toward Harrisburg, the truck loaded with barrels of tar, when the wheel came off the machine. The truck landed with wheels upright and was wrecked, but Kincaid got out unhurt.

McDowell was working for Gus Brown in the laying of the water line from Dorris Heights to Buena Vista when he was struck. He complained of hurting in the chest and back. The dent in Brown's truck was in the cab's right fender.

Recommends Fines in Addition To Prison Terms

Two Others Acquitted Of Charges in Embezzlement Plot

INDIANAPOLIS (UP)—Former Indiana Highway Chairman Virgil (Red) Smith and Milan attorney Robert Peak were convicted today by a jury on charges of conspiring to embezzle $25,800 of state funds.

Nile Teverbaugh and Harry Doggett, former top men in the highway department's right-of-way division, were acquitted of charges they participated in the embezzlement plot.

Nine and one-half hours after they received the case late Friday, the jury of 12 men returned a verdict.

Smith's and Peak's attorneys were expected to appeal their convictions, which carry mandatory prison terms of 2 to 14 years. The jury recommended a $5,000 fine for Smith and $2,500 for Peak in addition to the prison terms.

The verdict was read a few minutes before 4 a. m. c. s. t. Smith's face reddened and Peak flushed and was near tears when a clerk read the findings.

Teverbaugh, 48, who claimed in testimony in his own defense that he bought two back lots on Madison Ave. in Indianapolis as an investment for the education of his grandson, Kerry Dean Burton, said he was "always confident of the outcome or nearly always."

Doggett said he was "numb."

"I still have another indictment hanging over my head," he said. The Marion County grand jury which indicted the four men accused them of various charges. But they were tried only on the conspiracy charge.

The verdict ended a trial which began Oct. 7 in which the state tried to prove that Smith Peak, Teverbaugh and Doggett got their heads together and deliberately plotted to embezzle from the state by buying the two backyards along an expressway route for $2,500 and selling them to the state for a middleman profit of $23,300. Jury Foreman William Dimore revealed that the jurors voted unanimously on the first ballot to convict Smith and Peak.

The scandals eventually spread to include questionable purchases in other areas of Indiana, including Lake County, where a series of quick land deals dealt big profits to several persons.

Deer Hunting Season Enters Second Day; Area Kills Reported

The Illinois deer hunting season today entered the second day of the three-day period allotted to shotgun hunters with reports of a number of kills in this area.

Taken to the Smith Packing Co. plant for processing were a number of deer including the following killed Friday.

He said he had received reports that 18 or 20 were reported at both the Dixon Springs and Karbers Ridge check stations.

Other reports revealed the following:

It was reported that 434 were killed throughout the state the first day.

James Lackey reported to the Equality check station with a buck that weighed 275 pounds.

Fred Logsdon of Shawneetown checked into the Hardin county check station at Karbers Ridge with a 100-pound doe.

There were no reports of injuries to hunters.

Salvation Army Fund Drive Lags

A number of envelopes are still out and workers are urged to get them in to the Salvation Army by the first of next week. Businesses and individuals who have not been contacted can send their donations to Salvation Army, Box 194, Harrisburg.

Tuesday evening the Student Council and Hi-Y organization of Eldorado Township high school conducted a porchlight campaign for the Salvation Army and $135 was collected.

New York Central, Pennsylvania

Study Giant Rail Merger

NEW YORK (UP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad and New York Central Railroad may be merged into one giant transportation system under plans being studied today by the two carriers.

These two now rank one and two in size among the world's railroads. A merger would unite assets now totaling nearly six billion dollars and produce a new billionaire company ranking 11th in the list.

James M. Symes, president of the Pennsy, and Alfred E. Perlman, president of Central, announced they have initiated studies looking toward a possible union of the two into one consolidated system. The two already have held preliminary studies and discussions which they said indicate that substantial benefits to all concerned may result from such a merger.

Department Seeking Facts

In Washington, a Justice Department anti-trust official said the railroads were being contacted for information on their proposed merger.

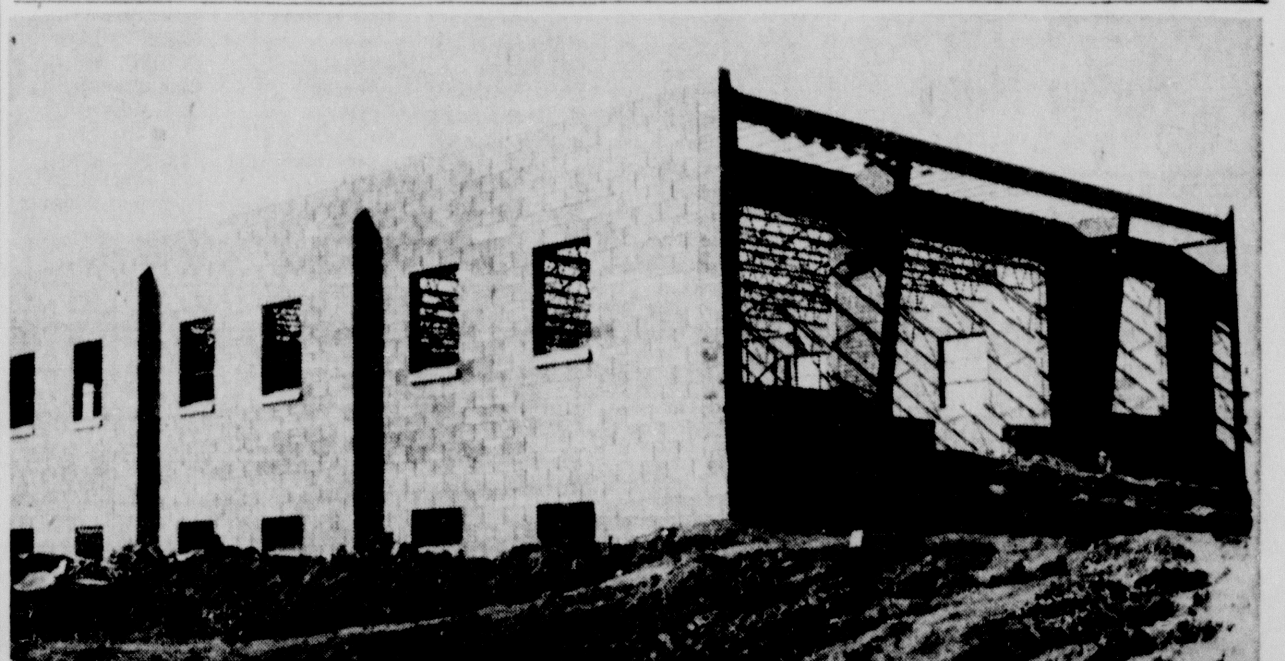

A joint statement said that the principal competition for railroads today "is not so much other railroads but other forms of transportation which are subsidized to varying degrees."

The statement listed what it termed difficulties confronting the roads—delayed rate increases, refusal to permit abandonment of unprofitable and unpatronized trains and facilities, inadequate payment for mail carrying, discriminatory excise taxes, excessive state and local taxes, "unfair assessments" for highway crossings, and other artificial burdens imposed in "the one mass transportation agency that has been demonstrated to be essential both in war and peace."

The two roads together blanket 15 eastern and mid-western states and one of them runs a bit into Canada. They have an aggregate of 20,000 miles of track. Last year they had aggregate revenues of nearly two billion dollars, carried eighty million passengers and hauled 378 million tons of freight. They employed 184,000 workers receiving about a billion dollars in wages.

Pennsylvania last year had net income of nearly 53 million dollars and Central nearly 43 million dollars. In the first nine months of 1957 Pennsylvania earned $1.49 a share, against $2.38 a share in the 1956 period. New York Central in the first eight months of the year earned $1.31 a share against $4.08 last year.

THE SALINE COUNTY FARM BUREAU BUILDING, being constructed on West Robinson street, Harrisburg, is progressing according to schedule. The building is a 40 x 60 foot concrete block, brick faced structure with full basement. Space has been allotted for the various Farm Bureau offices of the Farm Bureau Insurance companies' adjusters, the Tri-County Soil Testing Laboratory, Southern Illinois Breeding Association, Saline County Home Bureau and Soil Conservation Service. Construction was started by the Perkins Construction Company about a month ago and barring too much bad weather the building will probably be completed in December. (Daily Register Staff Photo)

Guy DeNeal Among Farm People, Business Leaders at Meeting to Boost Meat Sales

More than 100 farm people and 50 industry leaders Tuesday joined in an all-day effort to boost the sale of meat in Chicago, the nation's second largest city.

Farmers came from each of the 99 county Farm Bureaus. Fifteen farm women were in attendance at the "Land of Plenty" breakfast and the day-long series of group visits to places that use or process meat. The women were from the Illinois Agricultural Association districts.

Guy A. DeNeal of Harrisburg, was among those attending from this area. The farmer guests were divided into small groups to get an intimate glimpse in behind-the-scenes handling of meat in the city, and the group Mr. DeNeal was with visited the National Poultry and Egg Board offices, Swift and Co. and the Institute of Poultry Research laboratories and made a recording at WGN for Farm Editor Norman Kraft's program.

Wormy Pigs Cost More

One wormy pig may cost a swine grower three bushels of corn, and it may take an extra month for the pig to reach market weight, according to Dr. Norman D. Levine of the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine.

Piperazine is the best hog wormer now known, says Dr. Levine. The compound is made in many forms and derivatives, and one is about as good as another if you follow the directions closely.

Holding parasites to a minimum through a sanitation program may also help to control other swine diseases. The McLean county system of swine sanitation includes the following recommendations:

1. Put the sows in farrowing pens that have been thoroughly cleaned.
2. Wash the sows' udders before you put them into the pens. Worm eggs are often found in the dirt clinging to the udder and may be passed on to the pigs when they suckle.
3. Haul the sows and litters to pasture instead of letting them run down the same lane you have used year after year. Young pigs can easily pick up worm eggs from the dirt in the lane.
4. Use rotation pasture on ground that did not have pigs running on it during the two previous years.

Soil Saving and Yield Boosting

Fertilizer and lime are soil savers as well as yield boosters, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Fields that were treated with fertilizer, lime and manure not only produced more crops per acre, but retained 11 more inches of topsoil than did unfertilized fields in Illinois tests, says the committee. The tests covered 17 years of rotation farming in the Elizabethtown, Illinois, soil experiment field.

Each of the test plots was on a 10 per cent slope. Contour farming was used during only five out of the 17 years.

University of Illinois agronomists point out that as the productivity of the soil is built up, the land has greater protection from erosion. When a soil is rich in organic matter and produces good cover and high yields, it will not erode nearly as fast as soils low in both organic matter and productivity.

Many low fertility soils can be built up to profitable crop production by the use of lime, where needed, and the addition of fertilizer supplying balanced amounts of nutrients needed for high yields, says the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Bigger yields mean more net income per acre for the farmer, the committee points out. This not only pays for the fertilizer but provides extra cash for improvements on the farm and new comforts and conveniences for the home.

Notes From Farm Adviser

L. B. Kimmel

I have checked crop yields with at least 150 farmers in the county and find a variation of crop performance. For instance, some fields of soybeans stayed green until frost, failed to develop in the pod and resisted combining, failed to shell out of the pod. This is a very good indication of lack of plant food and especially suspect potash deficiency.

Another factor, farmers were forced to plant beans in July because of a wet late spring. This shortened up the season and several fields were not mature at frost. This probably cut yields as much as 50% of normal yields in a full season. Just remember in any season, soybeans require plenty of lime and potash. Not so much phosphate, but all plant foods must be present.

For those who have soft corn in the field, the best place to let it dry is on the stalk. Leave it there. Feed it as soon after picking as possible. Those who are feeding soft corn to steers, should haul it directly from the field to the feed lot. Start the feeders gradually on soft corn. This is a good way to market it. Don't make the mistake of picking and piling it up in a crib. Let it dry before picking.

I attended a meeting at Mt. Vernon on October 22 sponsored by Illinois Seed Growers Association. On the program were five University of Illinois Extension specialists who discussed soils, weed control, crops and varieties, dwarf corn, seeds and farm management.

One important fact brought out which will interest farmers of this county, we now can control giant foxtail and Johnson grass. It's being done on experiment this year. You will be hearing more when Pat Johnson and Prof. Spurrier appear in the county at our soils and crop meeting February 11. That's one meeting you had better try to attend to learn these research results.

Too much good crop land is being taken over by Johnson grass and foxtail or wild millet and reducing crop yields to the place to make it unprofitable.

November 8 is our 4-H achievement meeting to honor members and leaders for this year's 4-H work. The meeting will be held at the grade school at Muddy at 7:00 p. m. The Farm and Home Adviser are planning for the meeting and arrangements for a movie as part of entertainment have been made.

Several medals, trophies, certificates are to be presented as well as premium money for those participating in county show will be given to leaders for distribution to members.

Refreshments will be served to those present.

Those who do not have wheat planted at this date, should use at least an extra peck of seed per acre, from 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 bushels. Late planted wheat probably will yield about as well as that planted earlier but does not tiller or stool out much before spring growth.

Superphosphate 20%, triple super 40-45% or cal meta phosphate 62% usually pay extra dividend on wheat.

November wheat depends mostly on getting germination before hard winter freezing. I think you can plant with safety during first half of November.

Hunting

The hunting season is with us once more, and farmers are wondering about their legal rights in this area. A better understanding of these legal rights by both farmers and hunters will help make 1957 a year of pleasant hunting for all concerned.

By law, game belongs to the State of Illinois and not to the owner of the land on which it reproduces. However, this does not mean that the people of the state have the right to go on any land they choose to hunt game. In fact, the contrary is true—the farmer in possession of the land is the one to decide who shall be given the privilege of hunting on his land. The laws of Illinois provide that it is a criminal offense for a person to hunt on land without first getting permission.

Some hunters have the mistaken impression that, if they get permission to hunt from the owner of rented land, it makes no difference if the tenant objects. This impression is wrong. Unless the lease says otherwise, the tenant, being in possession of the farm, is only one who can give permission to hunt. The landlord, by renting the land, has given up his right to grant hunting privileges.

It is not necessary to put "No Hunting" signs on farm property in order to prevent unauthorized hunting. In addition to the criminal offense of hunting without permission, a trespassing hunter may be held liable for any damages he causes on the land, be it to crops, livestock or otherwise.

Occupants of land enjoy a special privilege under the hunting license laws of Illinois. They and their children actually living on the land do not need to get licenses to hunt on the land they occupy. This privilege does not extend to other lands or to the landlord of rented land. Persons enjoying this privilege must observe the other provisions of the Game Code.

Some storage changes to hold shelled corn instead of ear corn may have to be made on most farms if corn is shelled in the field. A dryer will be needed where moisture content of corn in the field is above 12 to 14% moisture. These are factors which may hold down its popularity for a while.

Picker Is Quicker Than the Hand

According to legend, many a country boy lost his money in the "shell game" at the carnival. And when he failed to guess which shell hid the little dried pea, the carnival slicker always said, "It proves that the hand is quicker than the eye."

There's a similar rule for corn-picker operation that can save more than money, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture. That "the picker is quicker than the hand," can be shown with a pencil and paper—and hundreds of picker accident victims can testify that it's true in the field too.

Tests prove that it takes you over half a second to let go of a stalk once you realize that it's going through the rolls. The snapping rolls pull in seven feet of stalks per second. That means you're taking a big chance in trying to pull stalks from a picker that's running, even if you grab the end of the stalk.

The obvious answers are these: Stay out of "shell games" and stop your picker before you attempt to clean, grease or adjust it. Following this advice can save you money and maybe even your life.

30 Persons Cited for Heroism by Carnegie Hero Fund Foundation

PITTSBURGH (UP)—The Carnegie Hero Fund Commission today cited 30 persons for outstanding acts of heroism performed while seeking to rescue others.

One of those cited was a Pennsylvania court reporter who saved a judge from a homicidal attack by an elderly defendant in a non-support case.

The assailant had shot and killed an attorney and was moving toward the bench and firing at the judge when Court Reporter George Geiger, 31, threw himself on the man, wrestled him to the floor and disarmed him.

The shooting took place in the Cumberland County Courthouse at Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 2, 1955 — the second such incident in Pennsylvania. In January, 1954, Norman W. Moon, 32, shot and killed Judge Allison D. Wade at Warren, Pa., as Wade was about to sentence him on a non-support charge.

The defendant in the Carlisle case, Percy S. Haines, was tried for the murder of Atty. John D. Feller Jr. and sentenced to life imprisonment. In his shooting spree, Haines also wounded his wife, another attorney and Judge Garber.

Two of those cited by the commission lost their lives in rescue attempts and were honored posthumously. Among the others were five schoolboys and a 12-year-old Ohio school girl, the youngest person cited.

Missile Probe By House Group To Begin Monday

WASHINGTON (UP)—Congressional investigators will question top military manpower officials next week on whether the U. S. missile program has been hurt by any waste of scientific talent.

The House manpower subcommittee, which has been conducting a preliminary inquiry into the matter, was set to open Monday the first public congressional investigation into the U. S. missile effort since Sputnik.

A subcommittee source said the group has received reports that competition for scientific and technical personnel in the entire military research and development field is "running wild."

Some agencies have gobbled up so many scientists and engineers that they have been assigned to ordinary administrative work, the source said, while other agencies have been suffering shortage.

In another development, a special Presidential Committee on Scientists and Engineers released a previously secret report showing that Russia has surpassed the United States in total number of scientists.

The report, prepared by Dr. Herbert Scoville Jr., assistant director of the Central Intelligence Agency, showed that Russia now has 1,500,000 scientists compared with 1,300,000 in the United States.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Harry Melton, who died 10 years ago Nov. 3.

What would I give to clasp his hand,

His happy face to see,

To hear his voice and see his smile,

That meant so much to me.

Sadly missed by children and grandchildren. *108-1

In Memoriam

In loving memory of John C.
Ward, who was killed in a mine accident, Nov. 2, 1949, at the age of 25.

We never thought when you left home

You never would return.

The shock was hard, the pain severe.

We never thought your death was near.

We often sit and think of you

And speak of how you died;

To think you could not say goodbye.

Before you closed your eyes:

This world would seem like heaven

If we could have you back again.

Sadly missed by his mother,

brother and sisters. *108-1

In Memoriam

Precious memories of mother, Mrs. Dola Tarrant, who passed away Nov. 2, three years ago. So sadly missed by her daughter, Mrs.
Eathel Stout.

The autumn leaves, all gold and brown,

Are falling now upon a silent mountain.

Upon a hillside there beside my father

On this November day,

Rests the body of the most precious mother

God ever gave.

Mother, we think of you, not in the tomb, but as of yore,

Happy with Dad on some distant shore. *108-1

GROUND—Strangely out of place on the ground, this 50-foot-high steeple presents a building headache at the new First Baptist Church at Salem, Ill. It was decided to build the tower at ground level and hoist it atop the belfry behind it. But so far, a crane with a long enough boom to raise the structure hasn't been found.

EQUALITY P. T. A. MEETS

The Equality P. T. A. held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday, October 23, at the grade school. After president, Ruth McMurty, called the meeting to order the large crowd present gave the parent teachers prayer, sang "God Bless America" and gave the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

During the business meeting the fourth grade received the banner for having the largest percentage of guests present.

Mildred Barnett and Gladys Moore volunteered to be seventh grade room mothers and Mildred Creemeens volunteered for the third grade.

Following a discussion of the P. T. A. sponsoring the Boy Scout movement the members voted in favor of doing so. Mr. McGraw, Carmi Boy Scout Executive, will be contacted and he will be in Equality at a later date to help organize a troop. The members also voted to have a Carnival again this year to raise funds, with David Sans being appointed chairman of the event. The date of the Carnival will be announced later.

Rita Adams extended an invitation to all to attend the World Community Day at the Methodist Church November 1.

November being P. T. A. membership month President Ruth McMurty gave a very appropriate poem to the group, "Join the P. T. A."

Mr. Franc, principal of the high school, expressed his interest in the P. T. A. and welcomed the public to visit the high school at any time.

Mr. Prather introduced the speaker of the evening, Judge Hale, who gave a very interesting talk on Juvenile Delinquency. He pointed out some of the problems we have here in Gallatin County. The president gave the P. T. A.'s thanks to Judge Hale for being their guest.

Entertainment for the evening consisted of a trumpet solo, "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" by Rosemary Wallace, a clarinet solo, "Melody in F" by Claudia Gowdy and a trumpet trio "The Kentucky" by Rosemary Wallace, Ruth Crest and Eunice Dempsey.

The meeting adjourned to the lunch room where the fifth grade room mothers, Rosemary Hopson and Irene Pearce and teacher, Mrs. Langendorfer served refreshments of pie and coffee.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, November 27, at 7:30 with Eddie Wise as the speaker and the public is invited to attend any or all of the P. T. A. meetings.

The Ira Adams family has as visitors Sunday and Monday, Miss Georgia Lee Stuart, Mrs. Muriel Garrison and Mrs. Clara Martin all of Blytheville, Ark.

A World Community Day is being observed at the Methodist church on Friday, November 1, at 2:30 p. m. Every one is invited to attend.

Mrs. William Beatty returned to her home in Evansville Tuesday this week following a two weeks visit here with her son and daughter.

McCue on Tuesday evening, October 22.

The meeting proved a most interesting one and was attended by 13 members. Following the formal opening and minutes of previous meeting a short business session was held and reports of committees were heard. The club had as guests, Pat Smith and Mary Jo Kanady, sophomores from the Equality high school. The former had been sponsored by the Tuesday Club to attend a conservation camp near Springfield during the summer. Miss Smith's report of her several days in camp was of special interest.

Roll call response was naming "A United Nations Member." Miss Kemp's subject "The United Nations" was ably presented and was of interest. With her talk and history of the organization she distributed literature pertaining to the United Nations and its workings. As a special feature she had on display a collection of the 82 miniature flags of the U. N. in colors which were much admired. The flag collection is now on display in the Guard Furniture Store Window.

During the social hour nice refreshments were served by the hostess.

Following are excerpts from Miss Kemp's talk.

Vignettes of the United Nations
Of the 170,737,000 population of the United States, only 48 cents a year for each is used for our share of the expenses of the United States.

Although some decisions seem delayed and not as we should like to see them carried out, yet Greece, Korea, Israel, Suez Canal and Hungary are examples of quick action by the various departments of the United Nations.

Technical assistance was supplied to 103 countries and territories in 1956. The Assembly allows each nation, large or small, an equal vote.

One of 85 young women from 30 different nations who is a guide for visitors to the U. N. said, "Since I came here seeing the U. N. work day by day, I've felt relieved and comforted about world news headlines."

The great moral force of public opinion from the discussions in the Assembly has been a deterrent to Russia when communism tried to oppress nations not prepared to resist.

UNICEF assisted child nutrition projects provided about four million children and mothers in 1956 with daily milk rations through schools and maternal and child welfare centers.

The membership has increased from 51 who signed the Charter to 82 at the present time.

About two thirds of the world's people are getting just enough food to keep them going. One of the major problems of the world is to increase the food supply and to improve distribution.

In one year our representatives to the U. N. must take part in over 2,000 meetings at U. N. Headquarters.

Free literature may be obtained from U. S. Committee for the U. N., 816-21st Street N. W., Washington 6, D. C.

The hunters, George C. Guard, Robert Barnett, Edward Hines and William Williams who have been spending a ten day vacation deer hunting eighteen miles south of Rifle, Colorado on West Divide Creek, returned home Tuesday last week. They report ideal weather most of the time and a most pleasant and successful hunt. Five deer and one 500 pound black bear were bagged.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Porter were visitors with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Porter, in Omaha Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Guard and Mrs. George C. Guard were in Evansville Monday last week to attend Verdi's Opera La Traviata at the Coliseum.

'Christian Worship'

GOLDEN TEXT: "Let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup." (1 Cor. 11:28)

INTRODUCTION — The Lord left two beautiful ordinances for his church to observe regularly.
One of these was baptism, and the other was the Lord's Supper. The first gives a picture of the death, burial and resurrection of our Lord, and the latter gives a pic ture of his death. The broken bread is a picture of his broken body, and the wine is a picture of his precious blood, shed on Cal vary.

In Corinth the people were abus ing the observance of the Lord's Supper. They were making a feast of it at which they were eat ing too much and drinking too much. It had become a sinful practice rather than act of wor ship in which to remember Christ's death.

We do not have people eating and drinking too much at the ob servance of the Lord's Supper to day but we do have some serious offenses. Those who come to the Lord's Table with a wrong spirit, or, with enmity toward another person, are sinning against God.
Listen to what Paul says:

I THERE SHOULD BE A UNITED SPIRIT (V. 20-22)

Those who come to the Lord's Table should be united in spirit.
There should be no division around His table. Those partaking should be of "one mind" and "one spir it." There is no place for class distinction here. The rich and the poor are equal. The world's so cially high and low are equal here.
The educated and the less inform ed are equal here.

In Corinth the rich were with drawing and eating in their own little groups. There is no place in Christ's church for cliques and classes. When we stand in his presence, we are all equal.

II IT IS CHRIST'S TABLE —
NOT MAN'S (V. 23-25)

It was God who established the Lord's Supper. He did it that we might always remember the price

He paid to ransom our souls from eternal hell. Since the Lord's Supper was established by Christ, then it belongs to Him. Since it belongs to Him, he has the right to control it. We are obligated to follow His suggestions and rules concerning the Lord's Supper. It is Jesus who tells who is invited and who is not invited to His Sup per.

III "IN REMEMBRANCE OF HIM" (V. 26)

"For often as you eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come."

What is he saying here? He is saying that when, at the Lord's Supper we take the broken bread and the wine, we are look ing back to the time when Jesus died on Calvary for your sins and mine. He, also, says that we are looking toward the time when he will come again!

IV PARTAKE WORTHILY (V.
27-34)

Coming to observe the Lord's Supper is serious business. It is a time of self-examination. No man is perfect. Therefore, as we come to the Lord's Supper we should first ask God to cleanse our hearts, minds and souls. We should again pray for forgiveness of our own sins. After such con fession and cleansing and forgive ness, one stands in God's presence ready to think on God's death and partake of the Supper. If we are unwilling to humble ourselves in God's presence and confess our sins, we then bring judgment upon ourselves when we partake of His Supper.

If some drunken person should approach the Lord's Supper, we would all be terribly shocked.
However, those who approach His Table with sins of the spirit, will stand in greater judgment by God.

CONCLUSION — The church is at worship around the Lord's Su per table. It is one of the church's highest hours of worship. There

TIED!

Maybe no one has ever ac tually bound your wrists with a rope. But haven't you, at times, felt as if you were literally hand tied?
You struggle and strain with your prob lems and anxieties, and you are com pletely unable to get free.

Such moments come to everyone, and they are not easy to face. It's simple to be serene when things are going well. But when your hands are tied—when you feel helpless, even hopeless—then you begin to realize life cannot be lived alone.

It's then that you know how important Faith is—how it is something you ab solutely must have. With Faith to sustain you, you inevitably begin to see your way out. Without it, you founder.

Turn to the Church—not just because you are troubled, but because it can give you spiritual freedom.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest fac tor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values.
Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and sup port the Church. They are: (1)
For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and mat terial support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

can be little worship if there is a division of spirit around the Table.
Those partaking should be of "like mind" and of "like spirit." Also, every person should "examine

Princeton Grid Coach Charlie Caldwell Dies

PRINCETON, N. J. (U.P.)—The men who played for him and those that coached rival teams today regarded the death of Princeton football coach Charlie Caldwell as a great loss—both to the university and to the sport.

Lou Little, who matched wits with Caldwell for many years until he retired as head coach at Columbia this year, hailed Caldwell as "a very aggressive and clean cut coach" who "was just in his prime" when he died of cancer Friday at the age of 56.

Dick Coleman, who played football under Caldwell at Williams College and took over as acting head coach at Princeton just before the start of the current season, pointed out that "each boy on the squad... has lost a great deal more than a head coach."

"We have lost a personal friend and a man whose leadership carried over from football into all our lives," said Coleman when reached at Providence, R. I., where the Princeton football team was scheduled to play Brown today.

A public memorial service for Caldwell will be held next Monday afternoon in the Princeton school chapel.

A private service was scheduled for this morning at the Caldwell home. University officials said the body will be cremated.

Regarded as a disciple of football's single wing offense, Caldwell coached for 17 years at Williams College before taking over as head coach at Princeton—his alma mater—in 1945. His Princeton teams were held scoreless only three times and were unbeaten and untied in 1950 and 1951.

Named "Coach of the Year" in 1950, Caldwell compiled a record of 70 victories, 30 losses and three ties during his 12 years at old Nassau. His lifetime record as a head coach was 146 victories, 67 losses and nine ties.

New Contract For Pitt Coach

PITTSBURGH (U.P.)—Pitt coach John Michelosen, whose team has suffered two straight setbacks, had a vote of confidence today in the form of a new three-year contract.

The 42-year-old Michelosen was tendered the new contract at a varsity lettermen's banquet Friday night on the eve of the Pitt home-coming game with Syracuse. The announcement by Athletic Director Tom Hamilton confirmed earlier reports that the likeable coach would be rehired.

Salary terms were not announced. Michelosen was believed to have received between $13,000 and $15,000 when he first took over the head coaching chores at his alma mater in 1955.

Michelosen posted a 7-3 record in 1955 and took the Panthers to the Sugar Bowl where they lost to Georgia Tech, 7-0. Last season, Pitt had a 7-2-1 record and was promptly invited to the Gator Bowl where it lost to Georgia Tech, 21-14.

The former Pitt quarterback, a student of the late Jock Sutherland and his single wing, currently has a 3-3 record and was highly favored to defeat Syracuse today.

Sparta Crushes Pinckneyville, 80-12; Scoreless Tie By Murphysboro, Anna

By United Press
Urbana ended Champaign's long unbeaten streak on the Illinois prep football card Friday night, but other unbeaten powers kept rolling.

Champaign had won 20 straight games before being tied by Mattoon last week. Then Friday night, twin city rival Urbana blanked the Matrons 19-0 to end the streak.

Sparta rolled up the night's highest score, crushing Pinckneyville 80-12.

But the biggest surprise in southern Illinois was a game in which Anna-Jonesboro held the powerful Murphysboro Red Devils to a scoreless tie.

In other southern Illinois games, West Frankfort defeated Harrisburg, 41-7, in a South Seven conference tie; Herrin trampled Johnston City, 34-0; Metropolis won from Du Quoin, 33-13; Christopher topped McLeansboro, 33-14, and Chester beat Marion, 13-6. Peoria Manual, Watseka, Arcola, Newton, Ottawa, Peoria Woodruff and Chicago Heights Bloom were among the unbeaten, untied clubs adding new victories.

Springfield Cathedral remained unbeaten also, but could do no better than a 7-7 tie with East St. Louis Assumption.

Manual squeaked by Streator 7-6. Woodruff socked Kewanee 39-0.

Arcola cinched a share of the Okaw Valley title by dumping contender Sullivan 33-20.

Chicago Heights Bloom registered its eighth straight victory 45-12 over Lockport. Watseka turned in victory No. 8 in a row by a 29-0 count over Oakwood.

Newton wrapped up the Eastern Illinois Conference crown by winning its eighth in a row, 33-19 over previously unbeaten but once-tied Charleston.

Ottawa collected its eighth straight win at the expense of Peru St. Bede 27-0.

Collinsville and Belleville battled to a 13-13 tie.

Unbeaten but once-tied Shelbyville continued to pace the Mid-state Conference with a 54-6 thumping of Kincaid.

Elgin was derailed in its path to the Big Eight Conference title by a 25-6 loss to Aurora East.

Chillicothe, unbeaten but once-tied, scored an easy 47-17 win over Bloomington Trinity. Pekin racked up Peoria Limestone 44-12.

Quincy topped Mattoon 31-13. Peoria Central took East Peoria 40-12.

In the northwest, Rock Island beat Iowa City 13-0, Clinton, Iowa topped Moline 20-7 and East Moline turned back Jefferson of Cedar Rapids, Iowa 19-13.

Burdette Feted By Home Town

NITRO, W. Va. (U.P.)—A tired Lew Burdette was on his way to Sarasota, Fla., and a "good night's sleep" today after being feted in his home town by 10,000 enthusiastic admirers.

The town of Nitro, named for its explosives endeavors in World War I, gave the World Series hero a "bang-up" homecoming Friday night.

"This is certainly wonderful," said Burdette today.

The crowd lined Main Street here, named "Lew Burdette Ave." for the day and whooped it up in grand style as the parade honoring him wound through the streets.

More than 2,200 miles of high-speed expressways have been built in the United States since 1951.

The Milwaukee right-hander and his attractive wife, Mary Ann, led the procession in a convertible, and then halted at the west end of the 3,500 population town to review it.

It was Burdette's first return to his native state in two years. He said it was great to be back but that all the attention he received since the series makes "a good night's sleep" a luxury.

"This is a crazy life now," Burdette said. "It's been this way since the series."

Seven Local Players Out By Ailments; Annual Parents' Night Observed

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs, with seven varsity players including two regulars out because of illness and injury, took a 41 to 7 South Seven conference football lacing Friday night at Taylor Field.

Chief reason for the big score was the passes of Red Bird quarterback Bruce Link, against which the Bull Dogs had little defense.

Bright spot in the Bull Dog play with the work of defense by Wendell Fisher, junior linebacker who stopped the Frankfort running attack time after time.

Bull Dog regulars out were Ira Logan, end and punter, who missed his third consecutive game because of injuries, and Gary Aldridge, ill last week and injured this week. Neither was suited.

Also not suited were Carl Fleming, David Dalton, Ben Barnhill, A. J. Bryant and Gary Leverett.

With only 15 varsity players available, Coach Lawrence Caluffetti had four sophomores suited up but did not use any of them.

It was the annual Parents' Night game, in which players with their parents, a relative or a close friend were introduced to the gathering before the game.

Very little Bull Dog thrills were provided for the parents and the faithful few in the stands, the big one being when Mickey Stone passed to Bill Yates for a 47-yard gain and touchdown with a minute and 20 seconds left in the game. Bill took the catch on the WF 27 and ran easily into the end zone. Ron Maynard kicked the extra point.

Frankfort scored in the initial period when Link, on a keep play, ran wide to score from the H-2 and Mike Henley's kick for point was good.

In the second period Frankfort scored twice the same way, on passes from Link to end Jim Ielase, the first for 28 yards, the second for 12. Henley, who made five out of six extra point kicks last night and has made 24 out of 28 for the season, made his only miss of the night after the game's second touchdown.

Harrisburg's best first half gain was a 31-yard pass, Stone to Ray Hassett, just before the half ended.

The Bull Dogs staged a third quarter drive which ended on the WF 19, after which they were pushed back to the 22. Then, on the first play after Frankfort took over, Link passed to halfback Warren Barty for an overall 78-yard gain and touchdown.

The first of two last quarter touchdowns came when fullback Dick Gore smashed 12 yards into the end zone and the second came when halfback Marvin Smothers, who carried the ball but a few times, scored from the H-6.

The statistics: Harrisburg: Yards gained rushing 51; yards gained passing 107; total yards from scrimmage 158; first downs 6; passing, four out of six completed with two intercepted, none incomplete; penalties, 20 yards.

West Frankfort: Yards gained rushing 89; yards gained passing 263; total from scrimmage 352; first downs 10; passing, 11 out of 21 with none intercepted; penalties, 55 yards.

Coach Caluffetti started Yates and Don Pickford at ends, Maynard and Jack Simpson at tackles, Bill Endsley and Darrell Biggs at guards, Allen Buchanan at center, Ray Hassett at quarterback, Darrell Duke and Mickey Stone at halfbacks and Eddie Price at fullback. Wendell Fisher was used at all times on defense. Other players used were Joe Wathen, Don Winters and Harold Beal. There were no varsity players who did not see action.

Next week the Bull Dogs wind up the grid season with a South Seven conference game at Benton the night of Saturday, Nov. 9.

Spider Webb Wins Decision Over Vaughn

NEW YORK (U.P.)—Middleweight contender Spider Webb, victor over Willie Vaughn in a five-alarm blazer of a fight, said today "after that one, I know I'm ready to take on any 160-pounder in the world—particularly the champion."

Webb of Chicago, the sixth ranking aspirant, explained, "that was the fastest 10-rounder I ever fought; seems like we were going all-out every second. And I don't know what kept him on his feet—under the pace and the punches he took."

The Spider, weighing 158 1-2 pounds to 160 1-2 for the California state champion, wound up with a unanimous decision at Madison Square Garden Friday night, despite Vaughn's desperate, floundering rally in the last two rounds.

"I don't know what my next match will be," said 26-year-old Webb, who registered his 25th victory in 27 starts before a rainy-night crowd estimated at 2,000. "But I'll fight anybody who can advance me toward the title."

Although 24-year-old Vaughn of Los Angeles was a 5-1 underdog for their television tussle, he forced the fighting in every round and provided menacing opposition. Webb beat him by counter-punching at long range with left hooks and straight rights. Also, he stepped in often with jarring right uppercuts to the chin.
